A PERSONAL NOTE

This Trip Is Designed To Feel Romantic, Easy And Beautifully Paced

You asked for a journey that feels special without becoming over-planned. This proposal keeps the route simple, gives the stay a strong sense of place, and leaves space for the moments you will actually remember.

The idea

Start with the view, move into island time, and finish with a soft Rome evening before you fly home.

The feeling

Coastal romance, private service, good food, unhurried mornings and enough structure to feel taken care of.

The decision

Approve the route and key pieces, then I move into live availability and booking holds.

The Journey At A Glance

This is the practical shape of the trip before we move into live holds, exact room categories and final booking conditions.

Best for

Anniversary with room to breathe

The proposal is intentionally balanced: enough detail to approve the trip, without locking every hour of the holiday too early.

WHY THIS ROUTE FITS

Scenery First, Island Time Second, A Soft City Finale

Ravello

You start above the coast, with privacy, views and a slower first rhythm.

Capri

The middle of the trip feels brighter and more celebratory, without needing a packed schedule.

Rome

The final nights bring culture, food and an elegant ending before the flight home.

TRAVEL PROPOSAL

Your First Days Are Built Around View, Space And Slow Mornings

Morning

Breakfast on the terrace, with no reason to rush.

Midday

Garden time, a village walk or a relaxed driver-led coast visit.

Afternoon

Pool, terrace, reading, resting, or a quiet drink with the view.

Evening

A slower dinner where the setting does most of the work.

Why this matters

The opening days should make the trip feel worth it immediately. Ravello does that without needing a busy schedule.

SIGNATURE EXPERIENCE

Private Boat Day: The Cinematic Moment

What it feels like

A day on the water, quiet coves, coastal views and time that feels private rather than scheduled.

Why it is included

This is the memory that gives the proposal its sense of occasion.

Pacing note

Built as one strong day, not one of several rushed tours.

FOOD AND ATMOSPHERE

Evenings Should Feel Personal, Not Programmed

Rather than filling every night with plans, I would reserve a few carefully chosen dinners and leave space for the coast to feel relaxed.

Included direction

One special sea-view dinner, one relaxed local meal, and one flexible evening kept open.

MID-JOURNEY

Capri Changes The Pace Without Making The Trip Busy

After the calm of Ravello, Capri gives the trip a brighter island chapter. The movement feels like part of the experience because the transfer can be handled by boat.

Route feel

Coastline to island, not airport-style logistics

Capri Gives You Sea, Light And A Little More Occasion

Stay direction

A boutique sea-view base that keeps the island easy, atmospheric and polished.

Island Days Stay Flexible, With One Strong Signature Moment

Keep flexible

A slower morning, a swim stop, a view-led lunch or a quiet afternoon can be chosen once you are there.

Anchor moment

One private boat or coastline experience gives the stay a clear highlight.

Advisor note

Capri can become crowded if over-planned. The proposal keeps only the pieces that matter.

FINAL CHAPTER

Rome Gives The Journey A Soft, Elegant Ending

Why finish here

A city finale gives the trip one final texture: food, evening walks, beautiful rooftops and an easier international departure.

The Plan Has Structure, But Still Leaves Room To Breathe

1 Arrive Naples, private transfer to Ravello

3 Private Amalfi Coast boat day

5 Boat transfer to Capri

7 Island coastline or Anacapri moment

9 Private food or evening walk

2 Slow Ravello morning and coastal settling-in

4 Gardens, views and a special dinner

6 Capri at your pace

8 Travel to Rome

10 Slow final day and rooftop dinner

ADVISOR RECOMMENDATION

Move Forward With This Route

This is the strongest version of the trip because it gives you the view-led stay first, the island chapter second, and Rome only when it adds value.

It starts strong

Ravello gives the trip an immediate sense of occasion.

It stays balanced

The route has movement, but not too many hotel changes.

It ends well

Rome adds food, atmosphere and departure ease.
