Late September to early October

A PERSONAL NOTE

The Final Week

Your reservations are organised. This guide covers the few decisions that remain, so departure morning feels familiar rather than rushed.

7 DAYS	Review names and passport validity Check every booking against the passport spelling.
72 HOURS	Confirm weather and transfer times Pack the final layer and keep driver details offline.
24 HOURS	Check in and charge devices Download documents and place essentials in your day bag.

YOUR JOURNEY SNAPSHOT

Ten Nights, Three Packing Moods

The route stays warm and coastal before a more polished city finish.

RAVELLO 4 nights

Terrace breakfasts, gardens, hotel afternoons

Light layers for height and evening breeze.

CAPRI 3 nights

Boat time, beach club, elegant evenings

Swimwear stays easy to reach.

ROME 3 nights

Early walks, neighbourhood lunches, rooftop dinner

Comfortable shoes with one refined dinner look.

Documents, Money and Connectivity

Keep digital copies available offline and one paper backup in your travel wallet.

PASSPORTS	Match every booking name	Check validity and keep passports in the personal item.
PAYMENT	Carry two payment methods	Store cards separately and keep a modest amount of euros.
PHONE	Activate roaming or an eSIM	Download maps, supplier numbers and the full itinerary.
COPIES	Keep one secure backup	Save passport and insurance copies away from the originals.
CONTACT	Share the route at home	Send one trusted person the hotel and flight overview.

PACKING

A Wardrobe That Works Across the Route

Pack around repeatable pieces rather than separate outfits for every day. Coastal mornings stay relaxed, while Rome evenings benefit from one polished option.

Core formula: breathable layers, comfortable grip, one refined evening look and a compact day bag.

AVA & MILES

What Belongs in Each Part of the Trip

COAST DAYS

Linen layers
Sun hat
Walking sandals
Light knit

BOAT DAYS

Two swimsuits
Cover-up
Waterproof pouch
Non-slip shoes

ROME DAYS

Supportive shoes
Shoulder cover
Smart casual look
Compact umbrella

Small Preparations That Protect the Day

Bring prescription medication in original packaging, plus the familiar items you prefer for motion, sleep or minor discomfort. Keep them in your personal bag.

Advisor note: boat days and winding coastal roads can affect travellers who are sensitive to motion.

AVA & MILES

DEPARTURE DAY

A Smooth Airport Morning

Build in enough time to move without rushing. Keep the items needed before boarding in one easy-to-reach personal bag.

BEFORE LEAVING

Passports, phones and medication

Complete one final room and safe check.

AT THE AIRPORT

Check-in details ready offline

Keep the document wallet accessible.

BEFORE BOARDING

Water, layer and chargers

Reset your watch to local time when useful.

LUGGAGE STRATEGY

One Checked Case, One Useful Day Bag

Coastal transfers include steps, ports and vehicle changes. A simpler luggage plan makes every handover easier.

CHECKED CASE	Clothing and non-urgent items	Use organisers so hotel changes stay simple.
PERSONAL BAG	Passports, medication and valuables	Also carry one light layer and a change of essentials.
BOAT ACCESS	Small waterproof pouch	Keep phones and documents protected from spray.
IDENTIFICATION	Tags inside and outside	Add advisor and traveller contact details.

The Tables Already Shaping the Journey

The final confirmation pack will hold exact names and references. These are the moments to protect.

DAY 01

Ravello terrace dinner

Keep the arrival evening easy and close to the hotel.

DAY 03

Weather-led coastal lunch

The captain selects the best route and stop.

DAY 06

Anacapri view-led lunch

A slower island meal away from Capri town.

DAY 08

Rome rooftop arrival dinner

Freshen up, then walk into the evening.

DAY 10

Anniversary dinner

Dress beautifully and arrive before sunset.

BOAT DAY PREPARATION

The Sea Decides the Final Route

Your captain confirms conditions on the day. Pack for sun and spray, and leave the schedule flexible enough to choose the best water.

WEAR	Swimwear under light layers	Choose shoes with grip for boarding.
BRING	Sun protection and a dry pouch	Carry only what you need on deck.
EXPECT	A route based on conditions	Coves and lunch timing may change.
AVOID	Rigid plans after the boat	Keep the evening open.
